

Crossword Puzzle

Down:

1. a town in Southern New Hampshire between Nashua and Peterborough
2. is part of the title of Harriet Wilson's book and the name of a documentary
5. a bunch of paper bound together that has a cover front and back
6. The first black woman to ever publish a book
8. are someone who organizes their own business and do the work usually by themselves
10. giving a speech to a person with the intent to educate them, happens at colleges
11. is to hold a person in bondage against their own will

Across:

3. the name of the book that Harriet Wilson wrote
4. to create a book and make the information in the book other people than yourself
6. substances you put in your hair to clean it or make it look good
7. to be able to do what one wants without being told that you can't do something
9. Someone who believes that the soul continues to exist after death
12. the person who wrote a book, paper, or piece of literature
13. the main city in Massachusetts
14. a town in Massachusetts known as "the City of Presidents" and is named after one of them

Down:

Across: